

Tata Institute of Fundamental Research Alumni Association Third Aveek Guha Lecture

Establishing Equal Opportunities, Social Justice, and Human Rights in India and the Asia Pacific

Dr. Mithu Alur, Padma Shri

Founder Chairperson ADAPT, formerly The Spastics Society of India

Pioneered education, healthcare and employment for women and children with disabilities, leading to social change, legislation and social policy for more than 50 years.

Championed the Right to Education Act (RTE).

“Conspicuous exclusion has existed in India with massive failure of services for children and youth with disabilities, institutionalising discrimination.

What were the strategies to establish inclusive practices in education, health, welfare, rehabilitation, skills development at the grassroots and in policy?

How was Reculturation, Transformation, Restructuration achieved while transforming Pedagogy and Community?

What is the ideology of Inclusion? How did I set out to achieve it?”

Come, listen to Dr. Alur's inspiring, lifelong mission!

See you in person!
